DESCRIPTION OF THE BIG SHIP.

Remembered in New York from Her Part in the Great Naval Review.(Copyrighted, 1894, by the Associated Press.) MONTEVIDEO, April 17.—The officials of the Brazilian Legation in this city have received a despatch saying that the rebel warship Aquidaban, formerly the flagship of Admiral de Mello, has been sunk off the island of Santa Catharina.

BRAZILIAN WARSHIP, AQUIDABAN.

It was previously announced that the Government fleet sent South by President Peixoto had captured the Aquidaban in a disabled and abandoned condition.According to the despatches made public by the Brazilian Legation, there was an engagement off Santa Catharina, and the Aquidaban was sunk by an attack upon the part of several of the Brazilian torpedo-boats.The Aquidaban was a seagoing turret-ship of 5,000 tons displacement, built in England, and launched in 1885. She was protected by a belt of steel-plate armor, having a maximum thickness of 11 inches.The Aquidaban had two turrets protected by ten-inch armor, and her principal armament consisted of four 21-ton breach-loading guns, carried in the turrets.She also had an auxiliary armament of four 5-ton breech-loaders, besides seventeen machine guns.The Aquidaban was built of steel, sheathed with wood and metal and possessed all modern improvements in construction and equipment.She was a conspicuous figure among the foreign warships anchored in the North River during the great naval parade at New York in October, 1892.The Aquidaban was Admiral de Mello's flagship, though the rebel commander was last quartered on the Republica.

HE GETS NO GHOSTS.

So Mr. Hall Would Drop His Contract to Buy Cumnor Place.(By Associated Press.) LONDON, April 17.—The action of Brett Hall against the Earl of Abingdon, the plaintiff asking the courts to cancel the contract for the purchase of him of Cumnor place, was continued today.Mr. Hall's contention is that the Earl's agent represented to him that Cumnor place was the house in which Amy Robsart died, and that the ghosts of Amy Robsart, and of her husband Arthur, often appeared there. VisitorsIt was claimed, came from all parts of the world, and especially from America, to see the place.Mr. Hall says he afterwards discovered that Cumnor Place was not the house in which Amy Robsart was killed, and that the original of Cumnor Place was in ruins and situated some distance away from the place he had contracted to purchase.

Great Britain and Germany Deny Recent Reports.(By Associated Press.) LONDON, April 17.—It is stated at the Foreign Office here that no negotiations are in progress or contemplated looking to a modification of the existing arrangements in regard to the Samoan Islands.BERLIN, April 17.—Inquiries made at the Foreign Office here resulted in a statement being made by a high official to the effect that Germany has not made any suggestion of a German protectorate over the Samoan Islands, as intimated in despatches received here from Washington.

LONDON, April 17.—Mr. Morton's bill to abolish the power of the House of Lords to veto legislation passed by the House of Commons was read in the House of Commons today for the first time.Later, the bill introduced by Charles S. Roundell, to abolish the representation in Parliament of the Universities, was also read for the first time.

THE NEW RULE GOES. AN ANTI-PLATT RALLY

House at Washington Votes to Count a Quorum.Republicans Try to Get the Reed Rule Substituted.But in the End They Vote for the Committee's Plan.(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, April 17.—There was a very large attendance on both sides of the House when the session opened today, in anticipation of the fight over the adoption of the new quorum-counting rule, and the galleries were also unusually well filled.In order to prevent parliamentary complications, Mr. Catcheside, from the Committee on Rules, secured recognition before the Journal was read, and after without the rule reported from that Committee last Thursday, immediately presented the report agreed upon just before the adjournment.Mr. Catcheside then attempted to arrive at an agreement about the limit to be set to the debate upon the proposed rule.The interest on the floor was intense, although there was neither confusion nor excitement.Mr. Catcheside suggested an hour and a half as a limit for the debate, but Mr.
Wells, of Wisconsin, one of the Democratic opponents of any quorum counting rule, objected strenuously.He thought, considering the great importance of the question that at least a day should be allowed for its discussion.
Mr. Catcheside then attempted to ar-
posed rule.The quorum-counting rule was finally adopted—21 yeas to 14 nays, the Republicans voting for it.

SENATE AND TARIFF.

General Debate to End Tuesday Next—Mr. Hill's Right.(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, April 17.—After morning business was disposed of to-day the Senate spent more than an hour in trying to reach an agreement for the consideration of the Tariff bill, Senators Harris, Aldrich, Allison, Mills, Hoar, Hill, Gordon and others taking part.At 4 o'clock the Senate went into executive session.An agreement on the Tariff bill was first reached, as proposed by Harris, to continue debate until next Tuesday.
When the bill was taken up by paragraphs, Senator Hill having the right to move to take up the free list first and consider it if sustained by the Senate.

THE ARMOR-PLATE FRAUDS.

Attorney Wallace Fails to Keep His Appointment About Them.(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 17.—Attorney Wallace, of Pittsburgh, who is in Washington with the purpose of presenting to the Navy Department a mass of new evidence bearing upon the defects in armor-plates from the Homestead works, does not appear to be disposed to hurry the matter.Secretary Herbert arranged last night to grant him an interview, but the attorney did not keep the appointment and failed to turn up at the Department this morning prior to the time the Secretary was obliged to attend the Cabinet meeting.

THE BRECKINRIDGE CASE.

Motion for New Trial Founded on the Judge's Comments.(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, April 17.—The attorneys for Representative Breckinridge filed, this afternoon, the motion for a new trial of the Pollard breach of promise suit. The grounds of error set forth are of the most technical form, except the eighth, which is as follows:"For errors of the Court in commenting on the evidence of witnesses and on the witnesses whose testimony was offered on the trial."It will be remembered that Judge Bradley commented once upon the prom-

fered on the trial."

AID FOR BRECKINRIDGE.

His Friends for the Congressional Race Publishing Cards.LEXINGTON, Ky., April 17.—Both G. C. Lockhart, of Paris, and C. J.
Benson, of this city, now announce the race for Congress. They will probably both support Col. Breckinridge, and their support means considerable strength.The entries to the Congressional race are now doubtless all in, and Breckinridge, Owens and Stille will be the starters.Breckinridge's friends are coming to his aid with cards in the papers. One of this morning's papers here contained six cards for him and none against him.Assertion that It Will Beat the Bi-Partisan Police Bill.Mr. Fish Claims to Be Able to Count 21 Supporters.Thirteen, Allied with Democrats, Could Defeat the Measure.(By Associated Press.) ALBANY, April 17.—It is confidentially asserted that the Bi-Partisan Police bill for New York City will be defeated in the Assembly to-morrow morning by a coalition of Democrats and anti-Platt Republicans.The bill, as at present before the House, has several amendments tacked on it. These are favored by the Republican majority, but not by Mr. Fish and those allied with him. The Republican supporters of the measure will not allow the bill to pass without the amendments.The measure is a special order for tomorrow morning, immediately after the reading of the Journal."The proposed amendment," said Mr.
Fish this morning, "which Mr. Platt wants inserted, is so as to allow our board to remove Supt. Byrnes without any charges being preferred. I am against it, and will defeat the bill if the amendment is forced upon us."It only requires thirteen Republican votes to defeat the measure, and Mr.
Fish says he has twenty-one. Here is a partial list of Republicans who will support Mr. Fish: Nixon, of Chautauqua; Thompson, of Dutchess; Shumway, of Sullivan; Brown, of Ulster; Brown, Whittey, Geris and Schoepflin, of Erie; Lawson, of New York; Houghton, Burris, F. F. Schulz, H. H. Schulz, Taylor, Ward, Scanlan, and Wieman, of Kings; Stone and O'Grady, of Monroe; Clark, of Niagara; Vachon, of Queens, and Lounsbury, of Ulster.

BYRNES HAS NO FEAR.

Will Do His Duty in Spite of the Attempt to Oust Him.In every corridor of Police Headquarters this morning there were knots of from three to a half-dozen officers discussing the probable outcome of the scheme in Albany to kill the amendment to the Bi-Partisan Police bill enlarging the powers of Supt. Byrnes.The hybrid political proposition from the two great bosses, Platt and Croker, to endow the Police Commissioners with power to remove the Superintendent, as well as the all-absorbing topic that occupied the minds and kept busy the tongues of all these officials.When the amendment enlarging the power and authority of the Superintendent was offered to the bill, it was quite numerously predicted by the small faction who were in the building, who have learned to fear the Superintendent because of strict discipline and the fearless administration of his office that it would never become a law. These few malcontents who confess allegiance to the powers that made them, and who delight in any indication of the discomfiture of the Superintendent, probably got the matter from the Tammany Commissioners, who not only fear the Superintendent, but would jeopardize almost anything save their immensely profligate positions, to oust him from his office.The Superintendent's friends unhesitatingly announced that the bill would not pass, and that the Superintendent would remain in his office, and that he would not be ousted from his office.It is not secret that this has been long

BYRNES AND THE BI-PARTISAN BOYS.

Will They Succeed in Throwing Him Down with Their Little Amendment?

THE WRIT DISMISSED.

Two Alleged Kidnappers Taken Back to Jail.Justice Beach, in the Supreme Court, this morning dismissed the writ of certiorari in the case of Della Hughes and Frederick K. Lloyd. They were arrested on the charge of kidnapping Charles Kuntz from a Chicago Orphan Asylum, and were again taken back to jail.Lawyer Evans, counsel for the defendants, had asked for a writ of certiorari, claiming that the arrest was unlawful, and that the defendants were entitled to their liberty.The writ was granted by the Supreme Court, and the defendants were released. However, the writ was dismissed by Justice Beach, and the defendants were taken back to jail.

LANGLEY TROUBLE ENDED.

The Millionaire and His Wife Will Live Apart.It was reported in Brooklyn to-day that the domestic troubles between William H. Langley, a millionaire wool merchant, and well-known clubman, and his wife, Mrs. Langley, had been settled.A year or so ago, Mrs. Langley sued her husband for absolute divorce. The case was heard by Judge Pitkin, and the verdict was in favor of the wife. Subsequently, she brought another suit for absolute divorce, and this time the verdict was in favor of the husband.Under the settlement, it is said, that the couple will live apart. Mrs. Langley will retain custody of the children, but she is to be allowed to see them and to direct the course of their education.

DEMOCRATS DENOUNCE HILL.

San Franciscoans Call His Speech Traitorous and Absurd.(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Three thousand Democrats met in mass meeting last night and passed long resolutions ending as follows:"Resolved, That the recent utterances of Senator Hill are traitorous in their purpose, false in their assumptions, absurd in their logic, and worthy of the indignation and derision of the Democracy of California.""Resolved, That the un-democratic conduct of Thomas J. Geary in reference to the Wilson bill is hereby condemned and repudiated.""The resolutions are to be laid before the Senate by Senator White."

NEW YORK VS. SPRINGFIELD.

Word's Men Trying Conclusion with the Eastern Leaguers.(By Associated Press.) SPRINGFIELD, April 17.—The Springfield Club, of the Eastern League, was the New York's opponents at the Polo Grounds this afternoon. Westerly and Farrell were the battery for New York and Keefe and Smith were in the box for Springfield.The score at the end of the second inning was in favor of New York. This is the last game the New Yorks will play before the opening of the regular season in Baltimore next Thursday.Supt. Byrnes, who was absent from work for one year by Judge Cowley's order, was arrested by Judge Cowley this morning, and will be held for four years.

Smashed a Lumpsum.

Nicholas McDonald, twenty-one, of 151 Hill street, while driving a team of horses and a truck past 88 Varick street, at 12:30 this afternoon, fell to the ground, receiving contusions about the body. The horses dashed into a lamp post at that place, breaking it off at the base.
McDonald was admitted to a hospital, and will remain there for four days.

Acquitted of Robbery.

Hattie Miller, of 33 West Thirty-third street, a rather handsome, pretty woman, twenty-seven years old, was on trial this afternoon, before Judge Cowley, and a jury, on a charge of stealing $100 from Hugh J. Pratt, a janitor at 345 West Fifty-fifth street. Judge Cowley dismissed the case after hearing the evidence.

Big Judgment Fined.

A judgment for $24.91 was filed in Supreme Court to-day against George C. Taylor, jeweler, at 660 Broadway, in favor of the E. Jaeger Jewelry Company, on notes.

RATE WAR IS IMMINENT.

It Will Involve All Traffic Across the Continent.Should the Union Pacific Railroad remain firm in its refusal to accept the divisions of rates set by the Western pool, a war of rates will be inaugurated such as will involve all classes of traffic the length of the continent.The threatened war had its origin in the refusal of the Union Pacific, which is not in the Western Passenger Association, to be governed by the iron-clad rules of the Association in its distribution of business.The Western Association says that for several months they have been trying to put the passenger traffic on a firm basis, but that the Union Pacific has rejected all overtures just because the greater portion of the Colorado and California immigrant business was not covered by the rates.There is a dead calm just now, but experienced railroad men say it is only the calm before a storm, which promises to be the most bitter in the history of such wars.The Presidents of the Trunk lines are very much disturbed at the prospect, and a meeting has been called for next week to discuss the matter. Many of the unimportant lines are selling first and second-class tickets at a reduced rate, and are thus making the rate, and allow the same rate to agents.
It is generally agreed that the Union Pacific's attitude will plunge all the other lines into the conflict, and that when once started the war will find its way to the Pacific coast.Mr. Langley, it is reported, has provided liberally for the care of his family.

MEDALS FOR PHOTOGRAPHS.

Display of New York Amateurs the Most Varied They Have Made.The seventh annual exhibition of photographs by the amateur photographers of New York, now going on at the Old box of Fine Arts in West Fifty-seventh street, is regarded as the most varied they have ever held.Rudolph Eckmeyer, of Yonkers, has been awarded the President's medal for the best photograph. It is entitled "Sweet Home," and depicts Mr. Eckmeyer's home in the shade of the willows, and to the N. H. Hignett of Chester, England; Enrique Alexander, Barcelona, Spain; Antonio Amatei, London, Spain; R. Wadsworth, Har-

FIGHT WAS A DRAW.

He Told It to a Jury, Which Promptly Convicted Him.Jacob Feinberg, aged fifteen, and Samuel Bierman, aged twenty-three, were found guilty of a fight, on the afternoon of Sunday, April 15, Mrs. Katie Miller, while looking at the prize dogs in Central Park, had her pocket picked of 50 cents and a five-cent stamp.Park Policeman O'Rourke saw Feinberg and Bierman fight beside the pond, and after minutes later, after she had complained, he caused their arrest. The money and stamp were found on Bierman.While testifying for himself Feinberg said that Park Policeman McDonough had told him that if he would swear he saw Bierman take the pocketbook, he would let him off. "Yes, sir," he was asked.
"Yes, sir, but it was a lie."The jury promptly found both men guilty. They were remanded until Friday, when Judge Martineau said he would give them a severe sentence.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

Colored Man Arrested and Held for Examination.James W. Hicks, a colored man, who resides at 165 Brecker street, was held in $100 for examination in Jefferson Court to-day. He is charged with breaking into the tailor shop of Levy and Sons, 250 Sixth avenue, early Friday morning.Hicks, it is said, had pilfered $500 worth of goods together with his underwear tipped over a chair and awakened the family, who sleep above the store. It is stated that when Hicks heard footsteps on the stairs he grabbed $50 worth of clothing and jumped through the window, cutting his hand on the broken glass.He was arrested yesterday afternoon at Thompson and Brecker streets by Detectives Doughton and O'Rourke.

To Speak on the Troy Election.

Charles R. Wellington, of Troy, a member of the Committee of Public Safety of that city, will address Good Cleveland Club at its rooms, 128 East Twenty-third street, tomorrow night, on "The Troy Election Outrage."

BOB FITZSIMMONS SUES.

Wants $10,000 for a Punch and "Damage to His Reputation."NEWARK, N. J., April 17.—Bob Fitzsimmons has begun suit against the Pennsylvania Railroad for $10,000 damages for the assault which was committed on him last Friday afternoon by one of the employees of the road.He alleges that his feelings and reputation were damaged to that extent by the blow which the brakeman gave to him. The cause of the trouble was the fact that Fitzsimmons went out of the platform of one of the cars on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and when he was ordered to go inside, refused on the plea that he was sick. When he was requested a second time, he again refused, and the man, so Fitzsimmons alleges, punched him in the face.The brakeman says that he was hit first by Fitzsimmons.
